Overview

Flooded with natural light, this studio apartment is on the first floor, walk-up, of a period building in Covent Garden. Well-proportioned, the studio space consists of a living/sleeping area and kitchen/eating zone with a smart white kitchen with integrated handles. There is ample useful storage, while wooden floors and statement radiators create a contemporary aesthetic. The shower room features white metro-style wall tiles and walk-in shower. Secondary glazing is fitted for tenant comfort.

New Row lies just west of the Piazza. While much of central London is easily accessible on foot, commuters have several transport options within reach. Positioned between Covent Garden (Piccadilly Line) and Leicester Square (Piccadilly and Northern Lines) Underground Stations, and a short walk to Charing Cross for mainline services to London Bridge, connecting to Canary Wharf and travel out of London.

The apartment is available from mid-January on an unfurnished basis (furniture available by separate negotiation). Subject to contract and satisfactory references. Westminster Council tax band: E

People Make Places

London is a collection of inspiring urban villages and one of the most exciting places in the world to live, work & play.

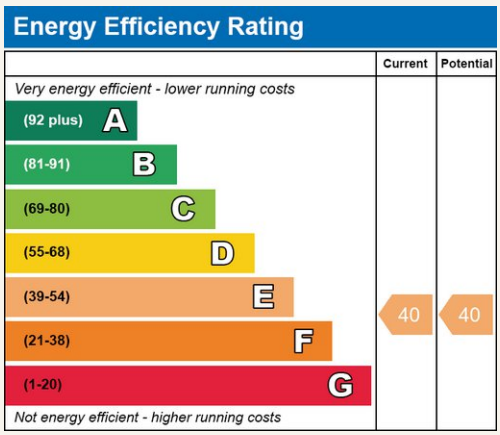

We work with both property owners and their occupiers, sharing the story of these vibrant neighbourhoods, conveying the unique soul & energy to future custodians, the people who'll keep them buzzing.

And unlike many real estate businesses we're not just about buildings, because streets & buildings don't make a neighbourhood.

We're about building relationships, because people make places.
